

Winter Camp Future Society
Annual Meeting
December 30-31
Jack Lord Cabin (Geezer Room)

Meeting called to order at 11.18 pm WCST

Attendees: Jeff Rand, Keith King, Matthew Grimble, Mark Bollman-->, Doug Wilson, Brian Maghran, Gabriel Church, Steve Donohue, Kristie Donohue, Ethan Rein, Alan Wilson, Jacob Ferns, Brian Mann

Notes from Winter Camp XLIII:

- It was expressed that the space theme was not well executed
- Everything went ok with a substantial portion of the adviser group left camp to attend a funeral
- We got a lot of service projects done. It was helpful to start with a big list and keep working through it
- Shopping went well
- We may want more free time on the schedule
- Patrols worked well, especially with clean up. As usual, we end up with adults doing a lot of cooking.
- Jack Lord / James West cabins worked well
- Bread making went well
- Crew Competition was well done
- Space walk was good

Chapter relationship

- Good.
- We don't get too much attention, but they're happy we're here.

Female Youth:

- Possible in 2020. If they come, we may need two trained female adults.

El Mediodia Party

- We may want to expand it or modify the location to make it more of a chapter event

Finances:

- We're not sure what we'll be billed for Jack Lord and James West, but Steve thinks we'll come out OK
- Thanks to Joe Retzbach for $50
- Thanks to Ron Donohue for 5 camperships

Trading post

- We ran out of pop and the end of camp, which is a good place to end up
- Doug suggested having fun sized bars for $0.25 next year

Equipment

- After considering using the OA locker, we decided to continue to use the BC Attic as storage
- We need big skillet, peelers, and cookie sheets

Merchandise:

- Café press stores are still open

Logistics:

- We have a good handle on rides him. Some youth have parents coming up

Notes for Winter Camp XLIV:

- During set up and clean up, we unloaded a significant amount of stuff
- We might want to experiment with new rules for 4 way volleyball
- We might want to try a more ambitious hole or holes for CC golf
- Matt Grimble will be leader. He's the first three time leader.
- Steve suggested some more cooking instruction early on in camp.
- Steve, Doug, and Jeff are making notes for meals. We probably ought to be reduce the quantities for the first meal.
- Chocolate milk was a big hit

Meeting adjourned at 12:26 am WCST
