Winter Camp XXX

On Guard Since 1986

29 December 2006

Curtiss Brothers Seize Power

Winter Camp has a long tradition of self-appointed leadership, beginning with Jeff Rand as the first youth leader in 1977. Whichever youth displays the initiative to declare himself the leader is deemed to be qualified for the office.

This weekette, first-time Winter Camper Andrew Curtiss was sufficiently moved by the spirit of Winter Camp to declare himself youth leader for Winter Camp XXXI. Within hours, his brother Corey Curtiss declared his intention to be the adult adviser.

Winter Camp Trivia

News Drought Continues

Gastronomic Delights

The Naval Lunch makes sense if you come from a region that eats submarine sandwiches. If you hail from "hoagie", "grinder", or "hero" country, the name is a little less obvious. This lunch debuted at Winter Camp VI.

The Chinese Dinner is back from Winter Camp XXIX, although it seems unlikely that we'll be pounding chicken with rocks again.

The Anti-Obedience Snack, first served at Winter Camp III, will celebrate bad eating in all its forms. If your New Year's resolution is to eat healthier, this is a chance for one last fling before the days of denial awaiting you in 2007.

Tomorrow will feature our second Continental Breakfast. This is the only meal theme that has been served more than once at any one Winter Camp. As with so much else at Winter Camp, this meal is truly what you make of it.

Correction: In yesterday's News, we reported that William Gagnon enjoyed pizza topped with Skittles, Kit Kats, and Twix last year. A close examination of Bollmano's Pizza records indicates that the unusual toppings were in fact M&M's, Twix, and Reese's Peanut Butter Cups. Sorry about that.
